

Give the gift of chocolate this Valentine's Day with Geneva Tourism's 'Choco Pass'

London, 06 February 2023: With Valentine's Day just around the corner, treat your loved one and give the gift of chocolate with Geneva Tourism's delicious Choco Pass. Valid for a year from the point of purchase, this is a gift that will give you both something sweet to look forward to.

As chocolate is the ultimate expression of love, the Choco Pass is the perfect gift for any chocolate lover. Allowing you to explore some of Switzerland's oldest and most luxurious chocolate makers, with a fully customisable chocolate-tasting tour around Geneva. From Sweetzerland's famous truffles to La Bonbonnière's indulgent hot chocolate, you and your loved one will be able to indulge in some of the world's most delicious chocolate on a romantic break to Europe's leading city break destination.

With the freedom to build your own chocolate tour around however many artisans you wish to visit, the Choco Pass is valid for 24-hours from your first tasting. Available to purchase for GBP £27 per adult, this is the perfect gift to show your love with this year.
