

Celebrate World Chocolate Day on 07 July, with Geneva Tourism's 'Choco Pass'

London, 21 June 2023: Taste your way around Europe's leading city break destination this World Chocolate Day, with Geneva Tourism's delectable Choco Pass. For those looking for the perfect way to celebrate the national day on Friday 07 July, a weekend break to Geneva is sure to tick all the boxes!

Built on a rich history in chocolate making that dates back hundreds of years, Geneva's Choco Pass allows visitors access to some of the city's most sought-after chocolatiers, ideal for satisfying that sweet tooth. Choco Pass holders will not only get to experience a fully customisable chocolate tour of the city, but they'll also get the opportunity to try a selection of carefully curated specialties at each participating chocolate maker. A chocolate lover's dream, the pass offers the freedom to build your own chocolate tour around however many artisans you wish to visit within a 24-hour period.

Renowned for its chocolate delicacies, Geneva has opened its world of chocolatiers to visitors both new and old. There truly is no better way to celebrate World Chocolate Day on 07 July than with Geneva Tourism's Choco Pass, available to purchase for GBP £26 per adult, and GBP £5 per child.
