EXPECT THE WOW EFFECT

A magnificent natural setting

Surrounded by nature and dotted with lush parks, Geneva is a refreshing haven of greenery. The city overlooks the largest lake in Central Europe, with the stunning Alps and the snow-capped Mont-Blanc in the background, and features rolling vineyards just ten minutes away from the city centre. Whether you are looking for a relaxing stay or outdoor adventure, Geneva is the place to be!

The birthplace of fine watchmaking

Steeped in watchmaking history, Geneva features many monuments and institutions that bear witness to this prestigious history, including the Flower Clock, the Patek Philippe Museum, and the Jet d'Eau. The city also boasts countless boutiques featuring the world's greatest watchmakers and fascinating workshops and tours.

The city of dialogue

Known as the city of dialogue, Geneva has been a hub of multilateral diplomacy for centuries, hosting the UN's European headquarters, 39 international organisations and 400 NGOs. With some 89 nationalities living peacefully together, the city is characterised by a great diversity of religions and cultures. As the birthplace of the Red Cross, Geneva also has a long humanitarian tradition.

A vibrant cultural scene

Geneva features some 40 museums, including 4 which are completely unique in the world. The city also boasts world-renowned venues, year-round festivals dedicated to dance, music and the performing arts, and an entire district dedicated to contemporary art!

A world centre for scientists & innovators

Geneva is home to CERN, birthplace of the world wide web, home to the famous Large Hadron Collider and the new emblematic centre for science education and outreach - Science Gateway. As a centre of excellence, Geneva has seen no less than 20 Nobel prizes awarded to personalities linked with the city.

Gourmet heaven

Offering top quality products and exclusive creations, the city has 62 award-winning restaurants. With around 180 cuisines from all over the world, Geneva has been ranked the third most gastronomically diverse city in the world and caters for all tastes, including vegetarians and vegans. Don't forget to try the delicious local specialities, including Geneva's delicious chocolate, fresh fish from the lake and the famous cheese fondue!

Fine wines & vineyards

Wine is a major industry on the shores of Lake Geneva, and the vineyards, set against a picturesque mountain backdrop, are well worth exploring. Swiss wines are famous for being light and easy to drink. Taste Geneva's finest vintages on a tour of local wineries!

The best starting point to the Alps

Surrounded by snow-capped mountains, Geneva is the perfect gateway to picturesque Alpine villages and famous ski resorts, including Gstaad, Zermatt and Chamonix at the foot of Mont Blanc - Europe's highest mountain at 4,810m.
