Top-10 reasons for a luxury stay in Geneva

Idyllic landscapes

A small urban gem at the gateway to the mountains, Geneva boasts landscapes that will take your breath away! From the right bank, which houses the famed United Nations, you'll get to admire the Jet d'Eau which spouts from the lake with the Mont-Blanc and the Alps as a backdrop.

Unrivalled quality of life

Geneva is regularly ranked among the top 10 most pleasant cities in the world. More than 60 peaceful parks and gardens make it one of the greenest destinations in Europe and an ideal place to relax in. Everything is nearby in this small-scale city. You can even go skiing and shopping downtown in the same day!

In the very heart of Europe

Perfectly located in the heart of Europe, Geneva is easily accessible by air, rail and road. A 6-minute train ride will take you from the city to Geneva International Airport, with connections to more than 120 destinations. The whole Canton is conveniently connected by rail and road to most of the popular destinations in Switzerland.

Exceptional hotels

Geneva is well known for its luxurious hotels that sit on the lakeside. The city includes 14 five-star hotels – the highest concentration in Switzerland – that will offer you a first-class welcome. An unforgettable and truly luxurious experience is guaranteed.

The cradle of luxury shopping

Geneva's master watchmakers have made the city a centre of excellence featuring the finest and most prestigious watches. These can be admired in the shop windows on Rue du Rhône: the main thoroughfare for luxury shopping, which is also home to the most beautiful items of jewellery and the world's most prestigious brands in more than 80 exclusive boutiques. The advantage of shopping in Geneva is that all the exclusive brands are represented in a small area within easy walking distance from one another.

Fine dining

Geneva is a haven of fine dining, featuring local specialties, top quality products and haute cuisine. The city is home to 59 award-winning restaurants mentioned in the prestigious Michelin's Guide and/or Gault & Millau Guide. With 30 master chocolatiers and Switzerland's oldest chocolate manufacturer (Favarger), Geneva is a true paradise for chocolate lovers.

Exclusive experiences

Geneva's range of premium activities is second to none and includes private watchmaking workshops, visits to famous watch brands, private boat cruises, fishing on Lake Geneva, helicopter tours of Mont-Blanc, luxurious spas and many other exclusive experiences.

Summer sports galore

During the summer, Geneva takes on the air of a unique urban resort. The city offers a wide variety of water sports: rent a sailing boat for an unforgettable day on Lake Geneva, have fun on a paddle board with a panoramic view of the Jet d'Eau and the Old Town, or board the Belle Epoque steamboat for a breathtaking ride!

A winter wonderland

Whether your destination is Switzerland or France, Geneva is the ideal gateway to the mountains. Enjoy a city break before or after your trip to Courchevel, Megève, Zermatt, Chamonix and Gstaad, which are all within driving distance.

Safety first

Switzerland ranks in the top 10 safest countries on the planet, and Geneva is much safer than most tourist cities.

A photograph of three women sitting on a sailboat deck at sunset. The women are dressed in summer attire; one in a white dress, one in a blue patterned dress, and one in a red floral dress. They are gathered around a small wooden table with drinks and a bowl of fruit. The sailboat's white sails are visible on the left. The background shows a calm body of water and a distant shoreline under a bright, golden sky.
